Respect Life Ministry

October 1st is Respect Life Sunday. We have an opportunity to support our pro-life initiatives with action during the month of October. James 2:17, which we heard a few Sundays ago, admonished "...faith of itself, if it does not have works, is dead"

Ashley M is a young lady of Native American Indian ancestry who has encountered several roadblocks in her life. Recently, she and her boyfriend, who are both recently unemployed and actively looking for work, found out that Ashley was pregnant. They agonized over the decision to bring a child into the world at this stage of their lives. After much discernment, they chose to continue with the pregnancy and trust in God to help provide for their needs, particularly for the mother and child.

In the basic hierarchy of needs, food, shelter, and safety are paramount. Ashley and her fetus have a roof over their heads in a safe environment, but the food cupboards are bare. We will be collecting canned goods and other non-perishable items at the October Social and Business meetings to support Ashley in her struggle. The Grand Knight will collect the donations and present our offerings to Ashley the middle of October. Any contributions would be most welcome.

K of C WOMEN'S CLUB

On September 12th, the Knights of Columbus Women's Club held their annual dinner at TAT's Italian Restaurant. It was great to see so many new faces among the friendly faces of our regular members. Everyone enjoyed a delicious meal and some great socializing. Anyone who paid dues was eligible for some great door prizes. Special Thanks to Martha Terry for arranging our annual banquet at TAT.

After dinner the Installation of Officers for 2006-2007 took place. The new officers are:
Kathy Baker – President Brenda Beyer – Vice President
Dee Ansbro – Treasurer Ann Burke – Secretary

Thank you for dedicating your time and talents to our organization. A special Thank you went out to Karen Yarger and Peg Brock after serving as officers in 2005-2006.

We also had a few special presentations. Peg Brock received a plaque in appreciation of her service to the Knights of Columbus Women's Club. She had served as our Treasurer since 1988 and other positions prior to 1988. Peg has devoted an enormous amount of energy and dedication to the K of C Women's Club and is truly a treasure to the organization. Kathy received a certificate for being selected the "Women of the Year 2005-2006" by the members of the Knights of Columbus Women's Club. Congratulations to both Peg and Kathy for their dedication to the Women's Club.

Again this year, the Women's Club is participating in the "Magical Night of Giving" on Sunday, November 12th. This is one of the major fundraisers for our group. A person purchases a ticket for $5.00 (all ticket sales go to the K of C Women's Club) to go shopping at either Eastland Mall or the Polaris Fashion Place on Sunday evening from 5 to 9 p.m. The malls close and only people with a ticket are able to shop. There are great discounts offered by all the retailers in the mall. The ticket also gives you the chance to win some GREAT door prizes. Take a friend or family member for a fun evening of shopping. This is a great time to do Christmas shopping. For more information contact Kathy Baker at 861-1580.

The next meeting will be held on Monday, October 9th at the St. Pius PAC Room. We will have a guest speaker, Miranda Stone, Dietician discussing nutrition and healthy food choices. The meeting begins at 7p.m. Please join us for a fun evening with friends and to make new ones.

It is the last minute and I'm writing the Chaplain's column. It causes me to think about how much we are all under stress and time pressures and deadlines. Our time is precious. We have so very much to do. How do we do it all? What are our priorities? It certainly isn't easy to figure out sometimes. When I was to be ordained, I was told that my priorities should be family, work, and Church. But sometimes things get all turned around and family seems to bring up the rear. I am forever having to reevaluate what I can and cannot do each day. Where do we start to set our priorities? It seems that the decisions are endless.

I'd like to share an observation. My observation is that our relationship with God must come before everything else. I say this because our relationship with God is the basis for everything else in our lives. It is from that relationship that we draw our strength, our hope, and our love. Therefore, we must feed that relationship. We feed it through the Eucharist. We feed it through prayer. We feed it through scripture. In the Eucharist, we receive the Body and Blood of Christ that nurtures and strengthens us for whatever it is we have to face in the world around us. In Scripture we hear God's word guiding and encouraging us. In prayer we can tell God about all our concerns; our fears and our joys, our happiness and our sorrow. And there, conversation with the God who always loves us, we can receive peace in our hearts.

Now, many of you would tell me that there isn't time for prayer and scripture in your busy schedule. And my response would be that there cannot NOT be time for prayer or scripture in your life if you are going to keep your relationship with God healthy and sound. In an interview Cardinal Bernadin of Chicago said, "About 18 years ago when I was archbishop of Cincinnati I came to the realization that I was encouraging others to pray, but I was so involved in my ministry that I wasn't praying very much myself," he continued. "I remember sharing this dilemma with some young priests I had just ordained. I guess I expected them to say that they understood. But they didn't let me off the hook. Instead they told me I had better do something about it if I intended to develop my relationship with the Lord." Here is a Cardinal of the Church who was too busy to pray and his priests called him on it. So he began a practice of an hour of uninterrupted prayer every morning. It was that prayer that supported him through the accusations of sexual abuse and his diagnosis of cancer. Now I don't expect any of you to give up an hour every morning to pray. But if you give up five minutes, faithfully, every morning, I would be willing to bet life would become calmer. Priorities would be easier to set. Your days will go smoother simply because you are allowing God to be a part of your day. And soon, you may desire to give up even more time because you will receive so much from those five minutes.

That is my challenge for each of you that read this column this month. Pray; five minutes a day, every day, for one month. Then let me know how your life has changed.

Deacon John

Grand Knight's Column

October 2006

Dear Brother Knights:

A great THANK YOU to all who participated in supporting the Reynoldsburg Tomato Festival this year. The festival was a success, not only with the good weather and attendance, but also the smooth operation based on good planning and flexible, responsive support by the Knights and other volunteers. Early indications are that we did very well in the parking area, and could not have done so without the support of our brother Knights from Fr Hohman Council and Marian Council, and the Ladies who supported us. Knights and their ladies (and several family members) were involved in planning, setup, parking, cleanup, support for festival activities, the parade, flag retirement ceremony, and cleanup. Many hands made relatively light work for all. You are a visible asset to the community at large, and I received MANY favorable comments on your volunteer efforts. THANK YOU.

A Special THANK YOU to District Deputy Brett Baxter, who spent most of the week at the festival coordinating the parking and other Knights Support – Brett even solicited support from his sons and their friends to fill critical roles during the festival. Five Stars also to PGK Lee Brock, who quietly made many parts of the festival run smoothly, including trash management and signage. PGK Jerry Lowery was instrumental in coordinating the support from both councils prior to the festival, and was definitely missed during the week as he recovered from his surgeries. Continued prayers for your speedy and complete recovery Jerry. A special thank you also to Brother Knight Dick Knapp from Marian Council, who brought his special talent and alter ego, the clown, to patiently direct traffic.

In addition to setup, parking, and cleanup, our Knights were visible at the Parade and at the Flag Retirement Ceremony, both on Sunday. We plan to provide much more information about these activities, and invite you to participate in them, much earlier next year. Please plan to participate where you are available. The Tomato Festival is always Wednesday through Sunday after Labor Day.

The parish Stewardship weekend showed me how much our Brother Knights are involved throughout the parish. Our Ice Cream Social helped draw people into the gym after Mass, and the ladies helped with the coffee and donuts on Sunday. I trust you learned about some of the many ministries that are active at St Pius, and perhaps found one or more, including the Knights or K of C Women's, that interested you.

D.O.T.

A prior pastor of mine in Korea used the D.O.T. program to encourage stewardship – handing out hats and T-shirts with the D.O.T. logo on them. He encouraged every member of the parish to Do One Thing that they were passionate about – with over 2,000 families in St Pius, and over 200 members in our council, imagine the results! I regularly thank people who are VERY busy supporting our events, but I am equally thankful for those members who have discerned their ONE THING – and can be counted on to Do One Thing to support the programs in our Council.

Lecturer Norb Smithberger has arranged a variety of interesting programs for the social meetings for this year. During our October social meeting, we will have Monsignor Noon speak with us about his travels. NOTE that our November social meeting (Nov 7th) will be at the Villas of St Therese, 25 Noe Bixby Road just off Broad St, west of I-270. Come learn about this new facility and the mission of the Carmelite Sisters for the Aged and Infirm.

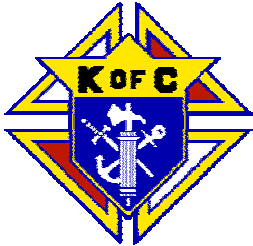

Your feedback is always welcome – you can reach me via the council mailing address, my e-mail (pyarger@yahoo.com) or on my cell phone at 614-746-6115.

Fraternally Yours,
PAUL YARGER, GRAND KNIGHT

Experience of a Life Time – The Knights of Columbus was created to unite men in their faith, as well as help others in times of need. Today we are looking for a new generation of Knights. Do you know a prospective candidate? Have you talked to him about the opportunities to grow through the five areas of service - faith, community, family, youth and fellowship? As men of faith, Knights are committed to making a difference by helping others. Pick up a Council Brochure, put a form 100 with it and give it to your prospect. Answer his questions and give the signed Form 100 to an officer in our council for processing. We believe in each other as we believe in ourselves.
